

Held in Cop Murders*CHARGED WITH SLAYING POLICEMEN

James De Michael (left) and Joseph Lacurto, charged with murder of Patrolmen Edward T. Byrns and Frank Daszkiewicz, were held without bail by Magistrate McCloskey, in Homicide Court yesterday. (Photo Graphic.)

'Bluefish Witness' Aids Stevens's Alibi

STRENGTHENS STEVENS'S ALIBI. Arthur Applegate (on stand) undergoes fiery ordeal as Prosecutor Simpson cross-examines him regarding Stevens's activities at time of Hall-Mills murder. Witness asserted that accused weighed a fish for him that night. (Photo Graphic.)

A LUSTY QUINTET. These bouncing youngsters owe their good health to care afforded them through proceeds from sale of Yuletide stamps sold annually by New York Tuberculosis and Health Association, which starts drive for $1,000,000 this week. (Photo Graphic.)

MOTORCYCLE TAXIS? Surely; in Newark. New type of "15 and 5" makes its appearance in the streets of Newark, N. J., looking for all the world like its big four-wheeled brethren except for motorcycle sidecar.

YOUTHFUL SLAYER. Lenwood Ware, shown above, shot to death his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Gandy, while they were eating breakfast at their home in Bridgeton, N. J. Ware's sister, Mrs. Madeline Maxwell, was also critically wounded by the youth. (Photo Graphic.)